

WAYUMI RETREAT

The Wayumi Retreat is a three-day experience in Pennsylvania designed to educate and excite people about world missions.

One-third of the world lacks access to the gospel. At Wayumi, you will dig into God's Word, learn about the needs around the world, and see how you can play a role in the Great Commission.

What to Know

- The Retreat is open to church groups, individuals, and families
- Our campus is located in the Appalachian Mountains of Pennsylvania
- The program runs from Friday dinner through Sunday lunch
- Stories and teaching from missionaries

What You'll Discover

- The biblical basis for missions
- The languages and people groups still waiting for the Good News
- Teamwork behind missions — pilots, teachers, translators, and more
- Hands-on language and culture activities
- Practical ways you can play a part in world missions
