

Wayumi

your adventure in tribal missions

wayumi.com

Winter Quest is a unique missions opportunity for high school youth groups. It is an opportunity to get away for a winter weekend and at the same time have your teens challenged for world evangelism while exposing them to the unreached people groups around the world.

F.A.Q. Sheet

- Why Wayumi Winter Quest? What better way to expose your students to an introduction to missions and have a blast doing it?
- Will we be eating grub worms? Only one, JK. No, we serve great food in the dining hall, no grubs or bugs are on the menu.
- Where do campers sleep? In lodging rooms in bunk beds.
- How many campers can you house? We can easily house up to 80 people.
- Who can attend? High School youth groups (7-12th grade) accompanied by youth leaders/chaperones
- Can a High School student come alone? No, the program is intended for groups, including adult leaders/chaperones. But any high school student can attend Wayumi Winter Quest with a chaperone who stays in lodging.
- Is there a minimum number of campers? No. But unless you will have enough to fill the camp, other groups may be included with you.
- Where is Wayumi? Central Pennsylvania (241 Old Forge Hill Road, Jersey Shore, PA 17740)
- How long is Wayumi Winter Quest? From Friday supper through Sunday lunch.
- What happens at Wayumi Expedition? Awesome stuff! You'll have to come find out.
- How is Winter Quest different from other winter camps? No other winter retreat focuses on missions like we do.
- How much does it cost? $69 per person (including the adults)
- What does the cost include? Meals, snacks, lodging, and all necessary expenses. Optional expenses would basically be limited to purchases in the bookstore.
- What can I purchase at the bookstore? Wayumi clothing and souvenirs, books on global missions, sleeping bags, flashlights, etc.
- What are the leaders/chaperones responsible for? They need to sleep in lodging with the students but are not responsible for any of the program activities.
- What should I bring? Sleeping bag, Bible, sneakers, modest bathing suit, flashlight, towel, etc. (Check out the Wayumi Winter Quest Checklist)
